28	(a) Official fees and taxes.
29	(b) Charges for insurance as described in subsection (2).

11	value to the debtor and if the charges are reasonable in relation 12	to the benefits, are of a type which is not for credit and are 13	excluded as permissible additional charges from the loan finance
14	charge. With respect to any other additional charge not
15	specifically provided for in this section to be a permitted charge
16	under this subsection, the creditor must submit a written

38	with the loan, other than insurance protecting the lender against the 39	debtor's default or other credit loss:
40	(a) with respect to insurance against loss of or damage to property
41	or against liability, if the lender furnishes a clear and specific statement in writing to the debtor, setting forth the cost of the insurance if obtained from or through the lender and stating that the debtor may choose the person, subject to the lender's reasonable approval, through whom the insurance is to be obtained; and

(b) with respect to consumer credit insurance providing life, accident, unemployment or other loss of income, or health coverage, if the insurance coverage is not a factor in the approval by the lender of the extension of credit and this fact is clearly disclosed in writing to the debtor, and if, in order to obtain the insurance in connection with the extension of credit, the debtor gives specific affirmative written indication of the desire to do so after written disclosure of the cost of the insurance.

SECTION 8. IC 24-4.5-3-402 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2007]: Sec. 402. The terms of the refinancing shall be no less favorable to the debtor than the terms of the original loan. This section does not apply to the extent that the payment schedule is adjusted to the seasonal or irregular income of the debtor.

- (3) If a consumer loan is made in compliance with the Alternative Mortgage Transaction Parity Act (12 U.S.C. 3802 et seq.), the note evidencing the mortgage must contain a reference to the applicable federal law.

7	the members of the applicant (if the applicant is a copartnership or an 8	association) and of the officers and directors of the applicant (if the 9	applicant is a corporation) are such as to warrant belief that the 10	business will be operated honestly and fairly within the purposes of this 11	article. The director is entitled to request evidence of compliance with 12	this section at:
13	(a) the time of application;
14	(b) the time of renewal of a license; or 15	(c) any other time considered necessary by the director.

18	history check by the Federal Bureau of Investigation;
19	(b) credit histories; and
20	(c) other background checks considered necessary by the director.
21	(4) The department may deny an application under this section if the 24	qualify for a license.

25	(5) Upon written request, the applicant is entitled to a hearing on the 26	question of the qualifications of the applicant for a license as provided
27	in IC 4-21.5.
28	(6) The applicant shall pay the following fees at the time designated

40	(6)(a) through (6)(c) from the filing fees paid under IC 24-4.5-6-203.
41	(8) (9) A loan license issued under this section is not assignable or transferable.

1	(10) The director may designate an automated central licensing

3	sole entity responsible for:
4	(a) processing applications and renewals for licenses under 5	this section; and
6	(b) performing other services that the director determines are 7	necessary for the orderly administration of the department's

9	SECTION 10. IC 24-4.5-3-504 IS AMENDED TO READ AS
0	FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE UPON PASSAGE]: Sec. 504. Revocation or
1	Suspension of License—(1) The department may issue to a person
2	licensed to make consumer loans an order to show cause why the 3	license should not be revoked or suspended for a period determined by
1	the department. The order shall state the place and time for a hearing
5	and set a time for the hearing meeting with the department that is no )	less than ten (10) days from the date of the order. After the hearing,
'	meeting, the department shall revoke or suspend the license if the department finds that:
)	(a) the licensee has repeatedly and willfully violated this article )	or any rule or order lawfully made pursuant to this article; or (b) facts or conditions exist which would clearly have justified the department in refusing to grant a license had these facts or conditions been known to exist at the time the application for the license was made.
	(2) Except as provided in section 503.5 of this chapter, no revocation or suspension of a license is lawful unless prior to institution of proceedings by the department notice is given to the licensee of the facts or conduct which warrant the intended action, and the licensee is given an opportunity to show compliance with all lawful )	requirements for retention of the license.
	(3) If the department finds that probable cause for revocation of a license exists and that enforcement of this article requires immediate suspension of the license pending investigation, the department may, after a hearing meeting with the licensee upon five (5) days written
;	notice to the licensee, enter an order suspending the license for not
5	more than thirty (30) days.
7	(4) Whenever the department revokes or suspends a license, the 3	department shall enter an order to that effect and forthwith notify the )	licensee of the revocation or suspension. Within five (5) days after the entry of the order the department shall deliver to the licensee a copy of

- (6) No revocation, suspension, or relinquishment of a license shall impair or affect the obligation of any preexisting lawful contract between the licensee and any debtor.
- (7) The department may reinstate a license, terminate a suspension, or grant a new license to a person whose license has been revoked or suspended if no fact or condition then exists which clearly would have justified the department in refusing to grant a license.
 - (8) If the director:

2.8

- (a) has just cause to believe an emergency exists from which it is necessary to protect the interests of the public; or
- (b) determines that the license was obtained for the benefit of, or on behalf of, a person who does not qualify for a license;

the director may proceed with the revocation of the license under IC 4-21.5-3-6.

SECTION 11. IC 24-4.5-3-505 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2007]: Sec. 505. Records; Annual Reports—(1) Every licensee shall maintain records in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles and practices in a manner that will enable the department to determine whether the licensee is complying with the provisions of this article. The record keeping system of a licensee shall be sufficient if the licensee makes the required information reasonably available. The department shall determine the sufficiency of the records and whether the licensee has made the required information reasonably available. The department shall be given free access to the records wherever located. The records pertaining to any loan shall be retained for two (2) years after making the final entry relating to the loan, but in the case of a revolving loan account the two (2) years is measured from the date of each entry.

(2) Every licensee shall file with the department a composite report as required by the department, but not more frequently than annually, in the form prescribed by the department relating to all consumer loans made by the licensee. The department shall consult with comparable officials in other states for the purpose of making the kinds of information required in the reports uniform among the states. Information contained in the reports shall be confidential and may be published only in composite form. The department may impose a fee of five dollars ($5) in an amount fixed by the department under IC 28-11-3-5 for each day that a licensee fails to file the report required by this subsection.

26	sale or consumer loan by the proceeds of consumer credit insurance,
27	the debtor or the debtor's estate is entitled to a refund of:
28	(a) any portion of a separate charge for insurance which by reason 29	of prepayment is retained by the creditor or returned to the 30	creditor by the insurer unless the charge was computed from time
31	to time on the basis of the balances of the debtor's account; and 32	(b) any portion of an additional charge that is:
33	(i) assessed in accordance with IC 24-4.5-2-202 or

37	credit to the debtor if all refunds and credits due to the debtor under 38	this chapter amount to less than one dollar ($1), and except as provided
39	in subsection (1) does not require the creditor to account to the debtor

11	computed; or
12	(b) the insurance terminates prior to the end of the scheduled term
13	of the insurance because of prepayment in full or otherwise.
14	(4) A refund or credit required by subsection (3) is appropriate as to 15	amount if it is computed according to a method prescribed or approved
16	by the insurance commissioner or a formula filed by the insurer with 17	the insurance commissioner at least thirty (30) days before the debtor's
18	right to a refund or credit becomes determinable, unless the method or
19	formula is used after the insurance commissioner notifies the insurer
20	that it is disapproved.
21	(5) If a refund or credit required by subsection (3) (1) is not made
22	to the debtor within sixty (60) days after the date the insurance debt is

Civil Actions by Department—(1) After demand, the department may bring a civil action against a creditor for making or collecting charges in excess of those permitted by this article. An action may relate to transactions with more than one debtor. If it is found that an excess charge has been made, the court shall order the respondent to refund to the debtor or debtors the amount of the excess charge. If a creditor has made an excess charge in deliberate violation of or in reckless disregard for this article, or if a creditor has refused to refund an excess charge within a reasonable time after demand by the debtor or the department, the court may also order the respondent to pay to the debtor or debtors a civil penalty in an amount determined by the court not in excess of the greater of either the amount of the credit service or loan finance charge or ten (10) times the amount of the charge. Refunds and penalties to which the debtor is entitled pursuant to this subsection may be set off against the debtor's obligation. If a debtor brings an action against a creditor to recover an excess charge or civil penalty, an action by the department to recover for the same excess charge or civil penalty shall be stayed while the debtor's action is pending and shall be dismissed if the debtor's action is dismissed with prejudice or results in a final judgment granting or denying the debtor's claim. With respect to excess charges arising from sales made pursuant to revolving charge accounts or from loans made pursuant to revolving loan accounts, no action pursuant to this subsection may be brought more than two (2) years after the time the excess charge was made. With respect to excess charges arising from other consumer credit sales or consumer loans, no action pursuant to this subsection may be brought more than one (1) year after the due date of the last scheduled payment of the agreement pursuant to which the charge was made. If the creditor establishes by a preponderance of evidence that a violation is unintentional or the result of a bona fide error, no liability to pay a penalty shall be imposed under this subsection.

(2) The department may bring a civil action against a creditor or a person acting in his behalf to recover a civil penalty for willfully violating this article, and if the court finds that the defendant has engaged in a course of repeated and willful violations of this article, it may assess a civil penalty of no more than five thousand dollars ($5,000). No civil penalty pursuant to this subsection may be imposed for violations of this article occurring more than two (2) years before the action is brought or for making unconscionable agreements or engaging in a course of fraudulent or unconscionable conduct.

(3) If the department determines, after notice and opportunity for hearing, that a person has violated this article, the department may, in addition to or instead of all other remedies available under this section, impose upon the person a civil penalty not greater than ten thousand dollars ($10,000) per violation.

1	prior to all other liens, except for taxes and assessments not
2	delinquent, and may be made with repayment terms other than as
3	provided in subdivision (2). When the amount of a loan is at least
4	two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), the fair cash value
5	of real estate security shall be determined by a written appraisal

22	percent (33 1/3%) of the total assets of the credit union at the time
23	the loans are granted. This section does not limit unpaid balances
24	secured by adjustable rate mortgages or loans with a remaining 25	maturity of five (5) years or less. Loans made upon security of 26	real estate are subject to the following restrictions:
27	(A) Real estate loans in which no principal amortization is 28	required shall provide for the payment of interest at least 29	annually and shall mature within five (5) years of the date of 30	the loan unless extended and shall not exceed fifty percent

34	provided for in subdivision (5), shall require substantially
35	equal payments at successive intervals of not more than one
36	(1) year, shall mature within thirty (30) years, and shall not
37	exceed ninety one hundred percent (90%) (100%) of the fair
38	cash value of the real estate used as security. unless the excess
39	of any loan over the authorized percentage of fair cash value
40	is guaranteed or insured by a government agency or a private 41	insurer authorized to engage in such business in Indiana.

(C) Real estate loans on unimproved real estate may be made.

1	The terms of the loan shall:
2	(i) require substantially equal payments of interest and
3	principal at successive intervals of one (1) year or less;
4	(ii) mature within ten (10) years; and
5	(iii) not exceed eighty-five percent (85%) of the fair cash
6	value of the real estate used as security.
7	(D) Loans primarily secured by a mortgage which constitutes 8	a second lien on improved real estate may be made only if the 9	aggregate amount of all loans on the real estate does not 10	exceed one hundred percent (100%) of the fair cash value of 11	the real estate after such loan is made. Repayment terms shall 12	be in accordance with subdivision (2).
13	(E) Real estate loans may be made for the construction of 14	improvements to real property. Funds borrowed may be 15	advanced as work on the improvements progresses.
16	Repayment terms must comply with subdivision (2).
17	(5) Subject to the limitations of subdivision (3), variable rate
18	mortgage loans and rollover mortgage loans may be made under
19	the same limitations and rights provided state chartered savings
20	associations under IC 28-1-21.5 (before its repeal) or IC 28-15 or 21	federal credit unions.
22	(6) A credit union may participate with other financial institutions
23	in making loans to credit union members and may sell a
24	participating interest in any of its loans. However, the credit union
25	may not sell more than ninety percent (90%) of the principal of 26	participating loans outstanding at the time of sale.
27	(7) Notwithstanding subdivisions (1) through (6), a credit union
28	may make any of the following:
29	(A) Any loan that may be made by a federal credit union.
30	However, IC 24-4.5 applies to any loan that is:
31	(i) made under this clause; and
32	(ii) within the scope of IC 24-4.5.
33	Any provision of federal law that is in conflict with IC 24-4.5
34	does not apply to a loan made under this clause.
35	(B) Subject to subdivision (3), any alternative mortgage loan
36	(as defined in IC 28-15-11-2) that may be made by a savings
37	association (as defined in IC 28-15-1-11) under IC 28-15-11.
38	A loan made under this clause by a credit union is subject to 39	the same terms, conditions, exceptions, and limitations that 40	apply to an alternative mortgage loan made by a savings
41	association under IC 28-15-11.
42	(8) A credit union may make a loan under either:

1	(i) (A) subdivisions (2) through (6); or
2	(ii) (B) subdivision (7);
3	but not both. A credit union shall make an initial determination as 4	to whether to make a loan under subdivisions (2) through (6) or 5	under subdivision (7). If the credit union determines that a loan or 6	category of loans is to be made under subdivision (7), the written
7	loan policies of the credit union must include that determination.
8	A credit union may not combine the terms and conditions that 9	apply to a loan made under subdivisions (2) through (6) with the 10	terms and conditions that apply to a loan made under subdivision
11	(7) to make a loan not expressly described and authorized either
12	under subdivisions (2) through (6) or under subdivision (7).
13	(c) Nothing in this section prevents any credit union from taking an 14	indemnifying or second mortgage on real estate as additional security.
